

Collins Not In Court At Westerly

Wrestler Too Weak to Appear Against Royster—Case Continued Another Week—Rose Embezzlement Case Goes Over—Carl J. Nordell and Miss Emma A. Parker Married.

Attorney Maximilian L. Lizotte, who, upon complaint of Attorney Albert B. Crafts, formerly of Westerly, was disbarred from the practice of his profession, petitioned the supreme court for a modification of the court's order. A receipt handed down Thursday denies and dismisses the petition. The decision concludes as follows:

"The petition amounts to a motion for a rehearing upon the original charges and may be so considered. The grounds upon which the respondents motion or petition is based do not entitle any new question which has not been fully, carefully and at length considered by the court. We were satisfied from the testimony and admissions of the respondent himself, together with other undisputed testimony and facts, that an order of disbarment would not only be fully justified, but that any other punishment would be inadequate. Under all of these conditions we cannot see how a rehearing could be profitable to the respondent, and the petition is therefore denied and dismissed."

There was quite a gathering of men of leisure in the Third district courtroom Friday, expecting to hear in detail the story of the slaying of Bill Collins by Sam Royster. The crowd was disappointed when it was announced that Mr. Collins was unable to appear in court and that the hearing would be continued for one week. As this fact was known to the court before the hour of opening word was sent to the jailer at Kingston not to bring the prisoner to Westerly. The assault occurred three weeks ago and Collins has been practically confined to his bed ever since, only being able to sit up at intervals. While the prospects are favorable to recovery, the process is very slow, but he may be able to appear in court next Friday.

When the embezzlement case against Peter Rose was called Judge John W. Seweney, his counsel, announced that Rose, who had left Westerly, was returning, and asked that the case be continued for three weeks. Judge Williams granted the request.

Not since the work of improvement in Westerly by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad company was commenced has work been suspended for any cause for a period of three days in one week until the present week, and the delay just at this time is of but little consequence. There was no outside work done Tuesday by reason of the snowstorm; Christmas day was observed, and work was held up Friday by rain. This work has been in progress for over a year and is within about 2 per cent. of completion, not including the grading between the eastbound rail and Railroad avenue, but all this outside work will be completed before the grass-seeding season.

Work is being rushed on the interior of the passenger station in order that public inconvenience will be reduced to Doan's are praised in thirty thousand signed statements, published in 3000 communities. Norwich people are no exception. Here's a Norwich statement.

D. J. Brown, 6 Summer Street, Norwich, Conn., says: "The results that followed the use of Doan's Kidney Pills in my case were entirely satisfactory. I procured this remedy at N. D. Sevin & Son's drug store and it proved effective in strengthening my kidneys and relieving other symptoms of kidney trouble." (Statement given August 27, 1908.)

JEWETT CITY

Baptist Society to Reopen Newly Decorated Vestry Sunday—Union Service in the Evening—Guests at Norwich Dance.

D., of Hartford is to preach the morning and evening sermons. After the morning service special exercises will take place in the vestry. In the evening there will be a union service, the Methodist and Congregational churches having been invited to be present to help celebrate the opening of the vestry.

Rev. J. W. Payne will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church Sunday morning, his subject being Meat from the Easter.

Rev. Samuel Thatcher's morning topic at the Methodist church is That Which is Past.

Holiday Guest.
Mrs. Emily Meech of Lebanon was a Christmas guest at W. R. Burdick's.

At Norwich Dance.
Misses Josephine Miller, Elizabeth Clark, Mildred Wilcox, Marian Paul and Theodore Robinson, Donald Bliss and William L'Heureux attended the Epilepsy Upsilon dance at Miller's in Norwich Friday night.

Stylish Bookmarks.

A woman who reads a great deal and who always keeps two or three books going at the same time, hit upon the notion of using fashion paper ladies for bookmarks, the modish little personages being clipped from a fashion magazine that uses a heavy cream paper for its pages. The idea proved so successful that now she makes paper doll bookmarks for her friends, providing each little paper lady with a back of white cardboard and sometimes touching up the figures with transparent photograph colors.

"Dark Stars."

Scattered through space are innumerable stars that give forth very little light or heat. Either they were never, at any period of their history, bright and glowing like the myriad stars that make the midnight sky so beautiful, or in the course of countless ages the heat they once possessed has radiated away from them into the depth of space, and now they are, as their name describes them, "dark stars."

Their Names Against Them.

We are believed to believe that Ananias left no descendants, but there were people so like him as to bear the name of Ananias, or again Ananias. Their descendants had to bear the brand of ancestral duplicity. So, Mr. Anacreonte may perhaps trace his descent back to the sweet Greek singer of women and wine. Not unlikely, as his greatest poetic brother, Placidar, also has sons.

Put Out of the Pale.

The latest circulation scheme of a Berlin newspaper is the engagement of two physicians to attend gratuitously upon their nearly subscribers. An annual subscription carries with it the free services of one of these two skilful doctors. A few months ago the paper telephoned to one of the staff physicians: "Don't attend Herr Mueller any more. His subscription has expired."

Wood for Lead Pencils.

The annual output of lead pencils in this country is more 350,000,000. The cedar wood is used in making them weigh about 100,000 tons, and nearly three-fourths of a cent's worth of wood is required for each pencil. No other wood is so good for the purpose, and the timber is becoming scarce. Old cedar planks and fence rails now find a ready sale.

Praise for United States Army.

There is less coddlingness in the United States army than is to be found in military forces elsewhere in the world. In England the reservists and the yeomanry are rather snubbed at the instruction camps and the maneuvers by the regulars; at San Antonio I saw no sign of this.—Columbian Magazine.

Unanswered.

"George," she asked, "if we were both young and single again would you want me to be your wife?" "Now, my dear," he absent-mindedly replied, "what's the use of trying to start a quarrel just as we have settled down to enjoy a quiet evening?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Putting it Politely.

Farmer (to horse dealer)—No, I don't bear ye no malice. I only hope when you're chased by a pack of r-fahin' 'ungry wolves you'll be advising that 'orse you sold me.

Local Laconics.
John Parker has recovered from a long siege of typhoid fever.

Rev. Charles J. Dutton will preach Sunday afternoon at Watch Hill.

Rev. Joseph L. Peacock will lead the Saturday evening service at the People's mission.

Miss Nellie E. Ball of New London is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sloan in Clark street.

Mrs. B. Court Bentley left Westerly Friday afternoon for Cincinnati on a visit to her sister, Mrs. George Cleveland.

J. Niles Potter, superintendent of Boys' clubs in Athol, Mass., formerly of Westerly, was here Friday visiting friends.

Rev. John M. Collins of Westerly will supply the pulpit of the Second Baptist church in North Stonington Sunday.

William Williams, contractor of the new town building and courthouse, was in Westerly Friday, inspecting the building, which is nearing completion. The timely action of the street department men in clearing the gutters of snow on Thursday prevented flood-sidewalks when the rain came Friday.

There is a report that as a result of a slanderous report by one woman against another the injured woman has left her home, husband and four children and gone to parts unknown.

Not only was a Westerly boy born on the 12th day of the 12th month of 1912, but at precisely 12 minutes of 12. He did not weigh quite 12 pounds, and is not the 12th son of the 12th son.

A matter of alleged blackmail on the part of a publishing concern against a highly respectable woman of Westerly has been referred to the postoffice department through the local inspector.

An illustrated lecture on Scenes and Incidents in Connection With the Birth of Christ was given by Rev. F. C. A. Jones of Calvary Baptist church Thursday evening at the Christmas festival of the Sabbath school of the Seventh-day Baptist church.

Friday's Rain Storm.

Friday a rain storm visited the borough, cleared the streets of nearly all the snow and made the sidewalks less treacherous.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Oleweiller.

The sudden death of Mrs. Edward Oleweiller, of Providence, R. I., at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon was a great shock to friends here. She had not been ill long and she was taken to the Providence hospital Thursday morning suffering with peritonitis, blood poisoning developing which caused her death. She was the daughter of Mrs. Harriet and Joseph Adams of Stonington.

She is survived by her husband, Edward Oleweiller, of Providence, her mother, Mrs. Harriet Adams, and four sisters, Mrs. Frank Lee of Mystic, Mrs. Charles Brightman of Ashaway, R. I., Mrs. Fred Hutchins of Bridgeport and Mrs. Charles Crandall of Providence; also five brothers, Fred Adams of Wickford, R. I., Carol, Henry Herbert and Benjamin Adams, all of Stonington. The deceased was educated in the borough schools here and was a favorite with all who knew her. The body will be brought here and the funeral will be held from the First Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member.

Real Hard Luck.

Nobody can be said to be really down on his luck to the down downward degree until he has had presented to him a very valuable watch which every time it is repaired costs from $10 to $25. There's no place where the percentage system works so agonizingly as with the valuable watch owned by a poor man.

Metemorphosis of the traction system of the English city of Birmingham receive cash bonuses when they avoid accidents due to negligence.
